Alarum ſounds.

VVhat new alarum is this?
Bid euery ſouldier kill his priſoner.
Piſt. Couple gorge. Exit omnes.

Enter Flewellen, and Captaine Gower.

Flew. Godes plud kill the boyes and the lugyge,
Tis the arrants peece of knauery as can be deſired
In the worell now, in your conſcience now.
Gower. Tis certaine, there's not a boy left aliue,
And the cowardly raſcals that ran from the battell,
Themſelues haue done this ſlaughter;
Beſide, they haue carried away and burnt
All that was in the Kings Tent:
VVhereupon the king cauſed euery priſoners
Throat to be cut. Oh he is a worthy King.
Flew. I, he was borne at Monmouth;
Captaine Gower, what call you the place where
Alexander the big was borne?
Gower. Alexander the great.
Flew. VVhy I pray, is not big great?
As if I ſay, big, or great, or magnanimous,
I hope tis all one reckoning,
Saue the phraſe is a little varation.
Gower. I thinke Alexander the great
VVas borne at Macedon,
His father was called Philip of Macedon,
As I take it.
Flew. I thinke it was Macedon indeed
VVhere Alexander was borne:
Looke you Captaine Gower,
And if you looke into the Maps of the worell well,
You ſhall finde little difference betweene
Macedon and Monmorth. Looke you, there is

A Riuer in Macedon, and there is alſo a Riuer
In Monmorth, the Riuers name at Monmorth
Is called Wye.
But tis out of my braine what is the name of t
But tis all one, tis ſo like, as my fingers is to fi
And there is Salmons in both.
Looke you Captaine Gower, and you marke it
You ſhall finde our King is come after Alexa
God knowes, and you know, that Alexander
Bowles, and his Ales, and his wrath, & his diſ
And indignations, was kill his friend Clitus.
Gow. I but our King is not like him in that
For he neuer kild any of his friends.
Flew. Looke you, tis not well done to take t
Of a mans mouth, ere it is made an end and fi
I ſpeake in the compariſons, as Alexander is
His friend Clitus: ſo our King being in his rip
Wits and iudgements, is turne away the fat K
With the great belly doublet:
I am forget his name.
Gower. Sir Iohn Falſtaffe.
Flew. I, I thinke it is Sir Iohn Falſtaffe inde
I can tell you, there's good men borne at Mo

Enter the King and his Lords.

King. I was not angry ſince I came in Fran
Vntill this houre.
Take a Trumpet Herauld,
And ride vnto the horſemen on yon hill:
If they will fight with vs, bid them come do
Or leaue the field, they do offend our ſight.
Will they do neither, we will come to them,
And make them skyr away, as faſt
As ſtones enforc'd from the old Aſſyrian ſling
Beſides, weel cut the throats of thoſe we haue
And not one aliue ſhall taſte our mercy.
